HOW TO KNOW IF YOU WILL SIT NCEA EXAMS OR NOT

Year 12 & 13 students will sit the NCEA exams if they arrive in Term 1 or Term 2 and will still be studying at Onehunga High School in Term 4.

Year 12 & 13 students will not sit the NCEA exams if they arrive in Term 3 or Term 4 or depart in Term 1, Term 2 or Term 3.

Year 9, 10 & 11 students will attend their regular timetabled classes at school up until Friday 8 December (TBC). They may not depart NZ before this date.

Year 12 & 13 students who are sitting NCEA exams, will finish their school year and start their exam leave on 31 October 2028 (TBC). They do not come to their regular timetabled classes at school from this date onwards, as they are at home on study leave, and only need to come to school on scheduled days to sit their exams in either the morning or afternoon. Students are able to depart NZ the day after they complete their final exam. The last date of a student's exam is dependent upon the NCEA external exam timetable, so they should check their scheduled exam dates before booking flights.

Year 12 & 13 students who are not sitting NCEA exams can depart NZ any time after 31 October 2028 (TBC). Students who stay in NZ after this date, must take part in the November Program, which will run from 6 November 2028 to 1 December 2028.
